COURSE: CAREER AND CALLING

LESSON: CAREER AND CALLING

Your calling and your career are two different terms. Everyone shares the same calling, to be image bearers and make disciples. Your career is what that specifically looks like.

When you align your career and calling, you build the Kingdom of God.

I am a _____ who ministers.

Are you discounting your career?

Who's kingdom am I building?

COURSE: CAREER AND CALLING

LESSON: GIFTS, TALENTS, DREAMS, JOBS

You work the job to live the dream,
You live the dream and quit the job,
You work the dream that becomes the job.

Your gifts and dreams will take work to develop.
Your gifts and dreams are not yours.

The difference between a gift and a talent is that you give gifts away for free, you monetize a talent.

What are your gifts and how are you developing them?

What gifts have you been given that have become talents?

Should we monetize every gift? Why or why not?

COURSE: CAREER AND CALLING

LESSON: PASSION AND PRODUCTION

A gift is rooted in passion,
a talent is rooted in production.

If we don't sabbath and take a break from producing,
we risk becoming human doings rather than human beings.

COURSE: CAREER AND CALLING

LESSON: FUELING TALENTS

Talents are rewarded for completeness, talents are fueled by passion.

What passions are fueling my talents?

How often am I investing time into my passions?

What passion turned into a talent, and what new passion have you discovered to replace it?

COURSE: CAREER AND CALLING
LESSON: BROKEN AND ANOINTED

For your gifts and talents to become anointed, they must be broken.

The sweet spot of of career, calling, gifts, and talents will be found in the process of breaking.
